Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Indian Fertility Society (IFS), we are extremely pleased to announce and cordially invite you to the much awaited academic event – the 13th National Annual Conference - Fertivision 2017, to be held on 8th, 9th & 10th December 2017 at Hotel Pullman, Aerocity, New Delhi. This conference is aimed to provide the most comprehensive coverage on “Current Best Practices and Innovations in the field of Infertility and Assisted Reproductive Technology (ART)”.

Renowned leading expert faculty from around the world will deliver a most updated cutting edge scientific program which will not only enrich your current knowledge and clear all doubts faced in day-to-day clinical practice, but it will also enlighten you on latest innovations and ongoing research. 15 highly renowned international faculties have already confirmed their participations till date.

The pre-congress workshops on 8th December are specially designed for informal in-depth training with hands on sessions on simulators and live, where ever feasible. There will be 4 simultaneous streams on 9th & 10th December with a wide variety of topics, enabling you to tailor the program specifically to your area of interest and clinical practice. The best oral and poster presenters under various categories and the quiz winners will be honoured with special awards and prizes.

Do join us and integrate most updated current standards in clinical practice, as well as get inspired to innovate further to overcome remaining enigmatic issues!

With Warm Regards
